The Festive Season at Adam Handling Restaurant Group

The festive season is going to be all the more special this year. I don't think any of us will ever take spending time with our families and friends for granted again.

We have the perfect offerings, across our restaurant and bar group, for you to celebrate Christmas and New Year in style. Whether it's heading to the coast to visit Ugly Butterfly on its own private beach in Carbis Bay, cosying up by the fire in The Loch & the Tyne in Old Windsor or experiencing British theatre in the Frog restaurant, Covent Garden, the only thing you're going to have to worry about is picking which of our places you want to go to!
